Money.

Anticipation of a speedy ease in Monetary affairs, based upon expected large receipts of wheat at an early day, have been in a measure disappointed, so far the market for wheat opening at such low figures that farmers are holding back, and the remittance from the country are very light. The money market shows a little more ease, though it is yet stringent. The discounts at the Banks are limited, and some good paper is offering on the street, where rates range from 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 per cent, for best demand. In New York the money market is quiet, but the supply on offer is quite moderate, and 4 and 6 per cent are the ruling rates here, call—exceptional transactions at 5. In Baltimore, according to the American, capital continues to accumulate, and rates are gradually softening. First class single name paper can now be easily placed at 6 1/2 per cent. The Banks are beginning to want paper, consequently all good mercantile business is readily done by them. There are large quantities of private capital seeking investment and the present indications are that money will continue to rule very easy.

There is some inquiry for stocks, which are firmer. Some improvement noticeable in Corporation of Alexandria stock, and sales have been made during the week at 85 cents. Manassas and Potomac also show an improvement, and at the close of the week are held at 65 and 66 1/2 with a fair inquiry. We hear of no transactions in Orange and Alexandria Railroad bonds, and quotations are unaltered. The New York stock market is dull. The Commercial, of Thursday afternoon, says: "There was less doing in state stocks, and they shared in the general decline. Virginia and Tennessee sixes were lower, and Missouri sixes and California seven and a half North Carolina sixes brought last evening's price."

On last Tuesday, Messrs. J. J. Moore & Co., of Norfolk, auctioneers, sold Exchange Bank stock, at 104 1/4 (105); Farmers' do., do., at 103 1/4; Norfolk City Scrip. at 74 1/2. Messrs. C. W. & P. Purcell & Co., regular weekly sale of stocks took place in Richmond, on Thursday, at the following prices: Va. 6's $3000, 94 and interest, O. & A. R. 8's $1000, 99 and int. Va. 6's $1000, 94 1/2 do., Bank Va., 109, 72. Richmond City $1000, 95 do., Bank Commonwealth 10 sh. 99 1/2. Va. and Tenn. bonds 24 m. 79 do., Exchange Bank, 10 sh. 105.

REMARKS.—This week the market has been in a very unsettled condition. Prices at the opening of the week were very much depressed, and Wheat went at 107c for prime red, and 120c for white of good quality. Flour was also much depressed, and Corn, Rye, and Oats declined. There has, however, been a reaction, and the market closed with an advancing tendency, and much firmer. The stock of Flour on hand is light, while there is a fair demand on the part of shipper and retailers, and we quote Superfine Flour at $5.75 (6.25) 50; Extra $5.75 (6.25) 50, and Family $5.00 (6.00) 50, according to brand. The latter is scarce. Wheat yesterday rallied, and prices advanced 10c (15c), the market closing firm, with sales of white at 120, 125, and 130c, for fair to good, and red at 100, 115, 118, and 120c, for fair to prime, and a lot of mixed, nearly red, at 122c. There were very light offerings on 'Change, and we saw no choice white. Corn is inactive; the receipts are light, and small sales were made at 75c (78c), for white, Rye is dull, with light offerings, and small sales at 65c; prime would probably command 78c. Oats are quiet, and the sales unimportant. We have no change to note in quotations of Wednesday, given above. Corn Meal is dull at 80c (85c), on the cars, and 90c, from neighboring mills. Sumac is in demand, at unaltered figures. Hay is quiet, the receipts being fair. The grocery market is unchanged. The sales for the week have been light, and we have no change to note in quotations since last week. Provisions are dull, and prices unchanged. Butter is very fair supply at 16c (18c) 1/2 lb. for best roll. Lard is wanted. Eggs are plentiful at 10c (12c) 1/2 dozen. Plaster is in very fair request, with moderate stocks. We continue to quote $3.75 per ton for lump, delivered on the cars—ground is in good supply at $7 1/2 per ton. The demand for Guano and other fertilizers is good, though not so active as during the previous week. We have no change to note in quotations, which are as follows: Peruvian Guano $38; Bomboro $28; Columbian $28; Elido Island $45; Navassa $28; A. Mexican $25; Kettlewell's Manipulated Guano, No. 1, $50; do. No. 2, $45; DeBurg Excel $45; Bonita's Super Phosphate $43. In Wool, there has been very little done during the week, the receipts have been very light, while the demand is less active. We quote the various grades dull at 30c (35c); Merino washed 40c (50c); unwashed 30c (35c); Corriedale unwashed 25c (30c); washed 33c (37c); pulled 30c (35c). Freighters are active, and vessels wanted. The arrivals for the week have increased, but Coal is accumulating, and orders for it from Eastern ports numerous. We quote rates as follows: To Portland, $1.85; Portsmouth, $1.75; Wareham, $1.75; New Bedford, $1.70; Bristol, $1.70; Boston, $1.66; Newport, $1.60; Fall River, $1.55; New Haven, $1.65; Norwich, $1.70; Pawtucket, $1.87; New London, $1.50; Hartford, $1.85; Bridgeport, $1.50; Derby, $1.80; New York, $1.50; Albany, $1.75; Troy, $1.80; Philadelphia, 80 cts.

LOCAL ITEMS.

COL. WM. MINOR.—An old and highly respectable citizen of this county, died at his residence yesterday. In the war of 1812, he was actively and usefully employed in the military operations in this neighborhood, having a command in the militia—and was subsequently a magistrate of the county. He was much esteemed by a large circle of relatives and friends.

LECTURE ROOM.—The Vestry of St. Paul's Church have determined to have erected on the vacant lot, south of the Church, and on the site of the old Sunday School house, a handsome Lecture Room and Sunday School building, the cost of which will be between $2,500 and $3,000. The plans and specifications are now being made, and it is expected the building will be commenced about the middle of August. We have been shown a rough draft of the exterior of the contemplated building, which is very handsome, and will be, when finished, a great ornament to the location, while it will reflect credit upon its designers.

FUNERAL OF DR. KINGSDOWN.—The funeral ceremonies of the Rev. Edward Kingsford attracted a large crowd on Thursday afternoon. The bell of the Tenth Street Baptist church was tolled during a greater portion of the solemn services. At 4 o'clock the remains of the deceased divine were placed in front of the pulpit at the Tenth Street church, which was crowded to its utmost extent by the friends of the deceased.

Rev. G. W. Samson opened the exercises by reading a portion of Holy Writ appropriate to the occasion. In a fitting invocation the Rev. Isaac Cole then addressed the Throne of Grace. The choir sang in plaintive melody the hymn "Why should we mourn?" And then a most feeling and appropriate funeral discourse was pronounced by the Rev. Dr. Hill, pastor of the church. The sermon having been concluded, the remains were removed, and the funeral cortege, stretching out its long line, moved its solemn way to the shades of Glenwood, where the body of the faithful minister was laid to rest until called by his Master.—Washington Constitution.

A NOVEL DEED.—The Richmond correspondent of the Petersburg Express says:—"A duel of a novel character took place at the residence of Robt. Hancock, esp. Shocke Hill, a day or two since, during the absence of that gentleman from home. Two men, some being engaged in a quarrel, in which both were much abused, they resolved to heal their wounded honor by a resort to the duel. There was but one pistol accessible to the combatants—an old horseman's side-arm—but they got out of this dilemma in the following remarkable manner: The weapon was heavily charged, the distance (ten paces) marked off, and the privilege of the first fire being taken by the loser of a cent. The parties then took their position, and the fortunate winner of the first fire asked his antagonist if he was ready? Receiving an affirmative response, the pistol holder blazed away, striking his opponent on the side of the forehead, and had it struck him plumply, instant death would have probably ensued. As it was, the defenceless ducky was severely stunned, and fell to the floor."

THE CULPEPER OBSERVER.—In behalf of the Whigs and Conservatives of Culpeper County, calls a meeting to be held at the Court House of the County on the 1st day of August Court, to appoint two Delegates and two Alternates for the County, to meet other Delegates in a Convention to be held at Staunton, Charlottesville, or the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs, on the 10th or 15th of September next, as may hereafter be determined upon, to consult as to the best method of bringing about a union of the Conservative Opposition elements in 1860.

A new spurious note is now in circulation, purporting to be a five dollar bill on the Central Bank of Virginia, at Staunton. It has been altered from some other bank plate. The vignette is a view of the battle of New Orleans; on the left end is a view of the Goddess of Liberty, and on the right a landscape with a drove of cattle. Letter B, date July 10th 1858. Other spurious notes of a different denomination, on the same bank, are said to be about.

FUGITIVE SLAVES.—Last evening, we learn four colored persons, who acknowledged themselves to be runaways, gave themselves up to a police officer of the First Ward. They say they eloped from Carroll's Manor, Maryland, where they were employed. We have not heard their reasons for giving themselves up. It may be that they feared to run the risk of losing kind treatment in Maryland for a bare chance of living by harder servitude in some of the Northern or Western States; or it may be the underground track is out of order, and there was no chance of a quick trip.—Wash. Star.

DIED.

On Friday morning, 29th of July, at Springfield, Alexandria County, Col. WILLIAM MINOR, in the 83d year of his age. His funeral will take place from his late residence, on Sunday morning, at 10 o'clock, A. M., to which the friends of the family are invited.
